FOREWORD

As one year fades away and the next begins, another class has graduated. But will school days be forgotten and left behind?

The Annual Staff presents to you, the students, this 1963 issue of the Cavalier, with the hope that both now, and in years to come, it will revive fond memories of teachers, friends, and activities at New Kent High School.

DEDICATION

As we approach the end of our high school training, we realize how great a debt of gratitude we owe to all our teachers--from the first grade through the twelfth.

In appreciation of one who has given so many years of hard work and service to the support of our school and for her influence as an elementary teacher, we dedicate this annual to Mrs. E. W. Upp.

Administration And Faculty

The Senior Class of 1963 in its unique way has entwined itself around the hearts of the faculty, not because of any very unusual or outstanding characteristics, but just because this class is composed of natural, capable people who enjoy living. They claim no pretense of perfection, but they are happy to love and be loved by all. I would leave with you this thought:

Four things a man must learn to do,
If he would make his record true;

To think without confusion clearly,
To love his fellow man sincerely,
To act from honest motives purely,
To trust in God and Heaven securely.

Classes

"Green" freshmen; "silly" sophs; "jolly" juniors; dignified seniors; these adjectives apply to none of us all the time and to all of us some of the time. Each class pursues its particular program, combining activities that are fun-making and fund-raising; vying with other classes in keen, wholesome competition; however, as a student body, the classes lose their individualism, and it's "All for one and one for all" --the true spirit of New Kent High.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President, Marshall Philbates; Vice-President, Dorothy Kirby; Secretary, Frances McCormick; Treasurer, James Davis; Reporter, Charlene Cobb.

HISTORY

Upon arriving at school in September, 1952, to enter the first grade, we were all met by our teacher, Mrs. Edwards. Mrs. Inez Kirby was our substitute for most of the year. Fourteen pupils of that class are graduating in June. They are Charlene Cobb, Dean Frame, Dorothy Kirby, Frances McCormick, Susan Lindsay, Anne Pomeroy, Natalie Gregory, Virginia Philbates, Frances Thompson, Jeffrey Richmond, Shields Dalrymple, Emmett White, Marshall Philbates, and James Davis.

As we look back on our grade school days, we see that it was there that we obtained the foundation for our high school work. Our elementary teachers were Mrs. Eunice Walls and Mrs. Alice Fisher in the second grade; Mrs. Cecil Orange in the third grade; Miss Mary Christian in the fourth grade; Mrs. Gladys Upp and Mrs. Phoebe Taylor in the fifth grade; Mrs. Gertrude Robbins in the sixth grade; and Mrs. Alice Fisher and Mrs. Elizabeth Davis in the seventh grade. We will always remember and thank them for starting us along our way.

Having reached the level of eighth grade in 1959, we thought that we had been at New Kent long enough to have the right to high school privileges. But as the custom is, we were to be left aside to age a year. A great part of our aging process consisted of learning to form very straight lines and marching, marching, marching.

Once the eighth grade was behind us, new doors were opened to the class. We were permitted to have parties after football and basketball games to raise funds for the far-off day when we would honor seniors with the Junior-Senior Prom.

In our junior year we discovered that there was acting talent hidden in our ranks. We presented our very successful play, REST ASSURED, under the direction of Mrs. Lois Richmond. Other highlights were the Junior-Senior Prom with its theme "Under the Magnolias," and getting our class rings.

At last the year which, twelve years ago, was beyond the gates of our first-grade imagination is here; we are seniors. There are twenty of us, including Theresa Tomlin who joined us this year. Highlights of this year include our play, GREAT CAESAR'S GHOST; our trip to New York; and Graduation Day!
